ABOUT THIS NEWSLETTER

NSSC This Week is a bi-weekly newsletter covering NSSC news within the Army and commercial media. NSSC This Week is maintained by the USAG Natick Public Affairs Office. To subscribe to NSSC This Week, please contact Bob Reinert at robert.j.reinert@us.army.mil.

SGT. MAJ. POFF CALLS IT A CAREER

In August 1988, gas prices averaged $1.01 per gallon, Ronald Reagan was the president, Steve Winwood had the number one song in America with "Roll With It," and Alfred and Diane Poff said goodbye to their son John as he went off to basic combat training.

REMEMBERING BAY STATE'S FALLEN HEROES

Against the backdrop of 20,000 small American flags placed on a hill that rose to meet the Soldiers and Sailors Monument on Boston Common, a succession of speakers walked to the podium May 26 and read the names of 143 Massachusetts service members who had fallen in defense of their country since Sept. 11, 2001.

BG MCGUINNESS SPEAKS ON MEMORIAL DAY

Veterans of American conflicts stretching back to World War II gathered on the Natick Town Common on Memorial Day, May 30, to pay tribute to brothers and sisters in arms who never returned home.

NSSC COMMANDER TAKES PART IN CEREMONY

Sergeant Deidra Neeley had no intention of making Massachusetts history Aug. 27, 2009. It just worked out that way.

NATICK DISPLAYS WORK AT STATE HOUSE

Work done at the Natick Soldier Systems Center was displayed May 24 at the Massachusetts State House in Boston. For the fifth straight year, "Beacon Hill Day" gave legislators, staff and the public a look at NSSC displays in the Great Hall area of the state house.
