HISTORIC SPACE JUMP HAS NATICK TIES

The world watched as "Fearless" Felix Baumgartner made his epic descent from a balloon 128,100 feet above the Earth. But what the world didn't know at the time is that the technology used to monitor Baumgartner's heart and respiratory rate has ties to Natick.

BOSTON PROGRAM HELPS VETERANS REACH HOME

It's not easy to reach home in baseball. That journey can be even more difficult in real life for Afghanistan and Iraq veterans who return to their loved ones with the so-called "invisible wounds of war."

FORUM SEEKS TO IMPROVE EFFICIENCY, MORALE

The best time to discuss problems is before they ever arise. That's the idea behind the Natick Soldier Systems Center Labor-Management Forum, which meets regularly with a goal to improve organizational efficiency and employee morale on the installation.

NSRDEC HOLDS "GREENING" EVENT

About 40 Natick Soldier Research, Development and Engineering employees experienced a day in a Soldier's life Oct. 11, when they participated in a "greening" event.

CURBING BASE CAMPS' APPETITES FOR FUEL, WATER

Base camps in Afghanistan consume vast amounts of fuel and water. To keep them running, resupply convoys must hit the road, putting Soldiers in danger. PM FSS seeks to curb those appetites.
