NATICK SPECIALIST FINALLY RECEIVES BADGE

They had just rolled out on a joint night patrol toward a neighboring village in Diyala Province, Iraq, when the first IED detonated, tearing apart an Iraqi police vehicle and ultimately killing three of its four occupants.

USARIEM SOLDIERS GET COMBATIVE

During a normal week, they are much more concerned with how to protect people than to do them any harm. The week of Jan. 24 to 28 was a little different, however.

DEFENDER 6 SENDS

The Army has a bold vision for managing natural resources on its installations: They will become net zero. That is, as we go about the complex business of living, working and training on installations, our use and production of resources will balance out, so that in the end, we do not over-consume or waste. The most exciting part of the Army Net Zero vision is this: We all have a part to play in achieving it.
