TEACHERS COME TO NATICK FOR TRAINING

USARIEM SOLDIERS PREPARE FOR COMPETITION

One will depart. The other will move up and make space for a third to join in the fun. That's the story of the candidates whom the U.S. Army Research Institute of Environmental Medicine at Natick Soldier Systems Center will send on to the U.S. Army Medical Research and Materiel Command NCO and Soldier of the Year competitions in late April.

DEFENDER 6 SENDS

I commanded the 3rd Infantry Division out of Fort Stewart as part of the surge in Iraq in 2007-8. During that time, 153 Soldiers died in combat, in a place on the battlefield where I put them.
