ABOUT THIS NEWSLETTER

NSSC This Week is a bi-weekly newsletter covering NSSC news within the Army and commercial media. NSSC This Week is maintained by the USAG Natick Public Affairs Office. To subscribe to NSSC This Week, please contact Bob Reinert at robert.j.reinert@us.army.mil.

NSSC SENIOR COMMANDER LOOKS BACK

"We've accomplished a lot, but there is still a lot of work to do," said Brig. Gen. Harold Greene, the Senior Commander of the Natick Soldier Systems Center. The general was reflecting on his time in command of the center.

HOLOCAUST SURVIVOR VISITS NATICK

Edgar Krasa rolled up his left sleeve to reveal a number tattooed on the inside of his left forearm. It marked him as a Holocaust survivor. More than six decades after the tattoo was placed there by the Nazis, Krasa showed it April 28 to those assembled for a Holocaust Remembrance at Natick Soldier Systems Center.

CHILDREN LEARN ABOUT WORK, ENVIRONMENT

At the same time they discovered what their parents do for work, children learned to appreciate the environment April 22 at Natick Soldier Systems Center's 14th annual "Bring Your Daughters & Sons to Work/Earth Day."

COMMITMENT TO SOLDIERS, FAMILIES REMAINS

A fundamentally different fiscal reality. We will be hearing some variation of that phrase from Army leaders for a long time to come. The Army's budget is smaller than it has been in previous years, and it will get smaller still. However, a different fiscal reality does not change the reality of what we owe to Soldiers and Families for their service and sacrifice.
